Q1 · GENERAL QUESTION

Sports Watching

관람 루틴: 종목, 장소, 함께 보는 사람, 좋아하는 이유

Tell me about how you usually watch sports. What sports do you enjoy, where do you watch them, and who do you usually watch with?

IL

I like watching sports. I usually watch basketball and baseball on TV. I often watch games at home with my family. It is exciting.

IM

I enjoy watching basketball, baseball, and international sports events. I usually watch games at home on TV or on my phone. I often watch with my family on weekends. I like sports because the games are exciting and give us something to talk about together.

IH

I watch sports pretty regularly, especially basketball, baseball, and major international events. Most of the time, I watch at home because it is comfortable and easy to follow several games. If an important Korean national team game is on, I usually watch it with my family. I also check the score and player statistics on my phone. What I enjoy most is the tension of a close game and the conversation we have while watching it.

AL

Watching sports is one of the easiest ways for me to relax after a busy day. I follow basketball and baseball most often, but I also pay attention to major international competitions when Korean athletes are competing. I usually watch at home on a large screen while using my phone to check lineups, statistics, or highlights from other games. When there is an important national team match, my family often watches together. I enjoy the competition itself, but I also like the shared experience. Even people who do not normally talk about sports can become completely focused on the same moment.

CHECK · follow sports / watch at home / shared experience

Q2 · GENERAL QUESTION

Sports Watching

과거 경험: 접전 상황, 결정적 장면, 반응, 기억에 남은 이유

Tell me about a memorable sports event you watched. What happened, and why do you remember it?

IL

I watched an important basketball game with my family. The score was very close. My team won at the end. I was very excited.

IM

A while ago, I watched an important basketball game at home with my family. The score stayed close until the final minutes. My team made an important shot near the end and won the game. We were nervous during the game, but we were very excited when it finished.

IH

One of the most memorable games I watched was a close basketball match that I saw at home with my family. The two teams kept exchanging the lead, so nobody could relax. In the final minute, the team I was supporting made a difficult shot and moved ahead. We were all watching quietly, and then everyone reacted at the same time when the game ended. I remember it because the result was decided so late and the excitement felt much stronger because I was sharing the moment with my family.

AL

One sports-watching experience that still stands out to me was a basketball game that stayed close from beginning to end. I watched it at home with my family, and at first we were casually talking while the game was on. As the score became tighter, however, everyone stopped doing other things and focused on the screen. In the final minute, the team I was supporting made a difficult shot and took the lead. The last few seconds felt much longer than they actually were. When the game finally ended, we all reacted at once. What made it memorable was not only the result, but the way a normal evening suddenly turned into a shared family moment.

CHECK · stayed close / took the lead / shared family moment

Q3 · GENERAL QUESTION

Sports Watching

변화 비교: 과거 방송, 현재 스트리밍, 실시간 정보, 장단점

How has the way people watch sports changed compared with the past?

IL

In the past, people watched sports mainly on TV. Now they can watch games on phones and computers. It is easier now.

IM

In the past, most people watched live sports on television at a fixed time. These days, they can stream games on phones, tablets, and computers. They can also watch highlights later. Sports are much easier to follow now.

IH

The way people watch sports has changed a lot. In the past, viewers had to be in front of a television at the right time if they wanted to watch a live game. Now people can stream games on phones or tablets almost anywhere. They can also check real-time statistics, watch short highlights, and follow several games at the same time. As a result, sports are much more convenient to watch, although people may pay less attention because there are so many screens and updates.

AL

Sports viewing has become much more flexible and interactive than it used to be. In the past, fans generally watched whatever was being broadcast on television, and if they missed a game, it could be difficult to see it again. Today, streaming services let people watch live games on multiple devices, replay important moments, and follow detailed statistics in real time. Social media has also changed the experience because fans can immediately discuss a play or share a highlight. The biggest advantage is convenience, but the downside is that viewers can become distracted by constant notifications instead of concentrating on the game itself.

CHECK · compared with the past / stream games / real-time statistics

Thank you.

AL

First, what time does the game start, and how early should we arrive? Are there three seats together in a section with a good view? Could you also tell me the price difference between the regular and premium sections? Finally, is parking available at the stadium, and does it need to be reserved in advance? If parking is limited, which public transportation option would you recommend? Great, thank you. That gives me everything I need.
